Rockport Music cancels the Rockport Chamber Music Festival

As a result of these unprecedented times due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19), Rockport Music has made the difficult decision to cancel the Rockport Chamber Music Festival. Artistic Director Barry Shiffman adds, "It is hard to imagine not gathering this summer, but in light of the current world situation, we feel the only responsible decision is to cancel this year's Rockport Chamber Music Festival."

Rockport Music continues to monitor the Coronavirus situation and decisions on the remainder of the summer will be made in May. Rescheduled concerts from the Spring which were moved to the Fall are currently available online and late summer events will be made available in mid-May.

Please visit our website rockportmusic.org for the latest details on canceled events as well as upcoming concerts. Rockport Music is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization and is supported in part by the Massachusetts Cultural Council.

ABOUT ROCKPORT MUSIC

Founded in 1981 as the Rockport Chamber Music Festival, Rockport Music presents exceptional concerts and cultural events in the "stunning acoustics and dramatic setting" (Boston Globe) of the Shalin Liu Performance Center. Best known for its summer chamber music festival featuring some of the world's finest ensembles and soloists, Rockport Music has expanded its offerings to include year-round presentations of jazz, folk, pop, and world music, high-definition broadcasts from the Metropolitan Opera and National Theatre (London), and special film presentations. Education and community outreach activities serve nearly 10,000 students and adults throughout Cape Ann and the North Shore annually.
